The efficient way to feed your staff made easy

We have been providing a cashless system for subsidising meals throughout Switzerland since 1961. More than 700 employers already benefit from this economical alternative to staff restaurants and cash allowances.

SWISS LUNCH-CHECK
THE TASTIEST CURRENCY IN SWITZERLAND.

Invest in the well-being of your employees by offering them this attractive and appealing fringe benefit.

for employers

- Exempt from all social security contributions up to the statutory ceiling
- No costs for a catering infrastructure – the alternative to running a staff canteen
- Standardised system for all employees, no matter where or how many hours they work
- Credit can only be used for its designated purpose of paying for meals
- Customised solutions for managing employee balances

for employees

- Not subject to income tax up to the statutory ceiling
- Convenient means of payment in over 8000 restaurants, thus guaranteeing a wide variety of individual eating options
- Eating lunch together helps de-stress, strengthens team spirit and boosts motivation
- quick and easy payment by app or card without a PIN code

The most social and popular of all fringe benefits that is known to help employees relax and improve their concentration.

No social security deductions

Unlike cash expense allowances, Lunch-Check subsidies of up to CHF 2160 per employee per year (CHF 180 per month) are exempt from all social security deductions. They do not have to be declared as income. This results in savings of up to CHF 324 per employee per year with Lunch- Check on social security contributions (approx. 15 %).

Calculate how much your company could save online!

Please note: the amount employees save in tax depends both on the level of the employer contribution and the tax rate. For detailed online information on declaring Lunch-Checks on the salary statement go to: lunch-check.ch.

The gift of Lunch-Check
